

Longview Visual Arts Commission

Parks and Recreation Department 2920 Douglas St. Longview, WA 98632 360.442.5400 www.mylongview.com

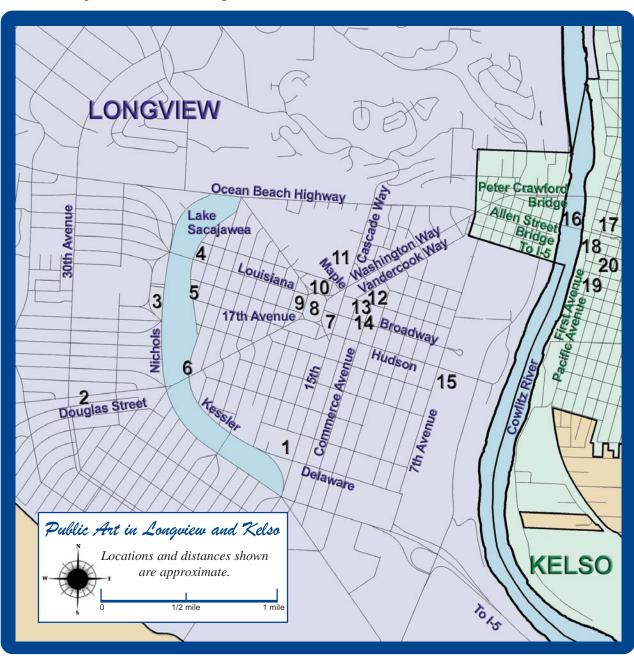

www.CowlitzToday.com
...the first place to check for local events!

Revised 8/07

Discover our public art!

Please use the map below to plan your tour of public art located in Longview and Kelso. The map numbers will correspond to the information and pictures in this pamphlet. Listings with an asterisk indicate there are additional pieces of art for viewing.

1 St. John Medical Center *

1615 Delaware St...... 414-2000

Lobby

Cross of the Millennium, Frederic Hart, 1999, cast glass, anonymous donor

Five Calligraphy Pieces, Cliff and Jean Mansley, 2002, donated by Julie and Phil Suek

Stained Glass Window, Arthur Stern, 1999, donated by the Kirchner Family

Surgery Reception Desk – first floor

Sculpture of Mother Embracing Son, Mary Lewis, carved rosewood, 1981, donated by K.T. Henderson Family (one of many pieces by Mary Lewis at the hospital)

Outdoor Garden

Sister of St. Joseph of Peace, Christ, and Mother and Child Figures, Sister Paula Turnbull, copper tubing, 1997, a number of donors

ParkLake Café

Mural of Lake Sacajawea, Retha Porter, 1999, donated by Retha Porter

Donor Wall, Glass, Christina Wallach, 1999, purchased by the hospital in honor of those who donate to the foundation

Women's Health Pavilion - across the street

Who Is She, Wendy Kosloski, acrylic painting, 2003, purchased by the Hospital

Parks & Recreation Administration Building

2920 Douglas St. 442-5400

Handstand Boy, Artist unknown, 2002, cast bronze, donated by Mary Vansickle

3-6 Lake Sacajawea Park

Between Kessler and Nichols 442-5400

(3) Sacajawea, Jim Demetro, 2005, cast bronze, donated by the Longview Public Service Group

(4) Japanese Figure, artist unknown, 2002, carved granite, donated by Ruthie LaRiviere

(5) Fetch, Georgia Gerber, 2001, cast bronze, donated by Janet Hart Brandt and Mary Jane Hart Hirshfield

(6) Totem Pole, Rex Losey (carver) and Rose Losey (painter), 1976 (refurbished and rededicated in 2001), carved wood, donated by the Pioneer Lions Club

Longview City Hall *

1525 Broadway 442-5004

Lobby

Vernal Rill, Bruce Literal, 1987, cast bronze, purchased by the city

Council Chambers

Photographs of Longview, Arne Loren, 1997, purchased by the city

8 R.A. Long Park

Washington Way Circle 442-5400

R.A. Long Bust, Victor Alonzo Lewis, 1946, cast bronze, donated by the R.A. Long Memorial Association

9 Monticello Hotel

1405 17th Avenue...... 425-9900

Outside Hotel

Twilight Reverence, Jim Demetro, 2003, cast bronze, purchased by the Monticello Hotel

Mother Bathing Child, Jim Demetro, 2003, cast bronze, purchased by the Monticello Hotel

Lobby

Conquerors of the Trail, Joe Knowles, 1925, series of 46 oil paintings, commissioned by R.A. Long

10 Longview Public Library*

1600 Louisiana Street 442-5300

Library Grounds

Story Time, DeL'Esprie, 2002, cast bronze, donated by Jeanne and Louis Mace

Squirrel, Tom Kell, 2001, carved and stained wood, donated by the Sandbaggers Club

Jutonias

Koth Gallery – Visiting Artist Program, new display every three weeks except from June through August

Hanging art

Portrait of Robert A. Long, Margaret Lindsay Williams, oil painting, 1930, donated by artist

Portrait of Ella M. Long, Margaret Lindsay Williams, oil painting, 1949, gift for city's 25th birthday from Mrs. Hayne Ellis, daughter of the Longs

Portrait of Abraham Lincoln, Harry Schaefer, charcoal and pen & ink, 1920s, donated by Faye Schaefer Mann

Red Cedars, Old and New – Washington, Elizabeth Colborne, woodblock, 1930s, Public Works of Art Project - Region #16, Washington

Mossy Woods – Washington, Elizabeth Colborne, woodblock, 1930s, Public Works of Art Project - Region #16, Washington

^{*} Indicates there are additional pieces of art for viewing.

11 Lower Columbia College*

1600 Maple Street 442-2000

Main Building

Rainier in Autumn, Aki Sogabe, 2002, paper cutting, Washington State Arts Commission, main entrance

Estuary: Pilings and Petroglyphs, Erik Sandgren, 2006, acrylic on linen, purchased by the College, second floor, main stairwell

Journey, Jennifer Williams, 2006, mixed media, purchased by the College, south stairwell, first floor

Student Center

Prodigal Gifts, Bill Brewer, 1993, acrylic, Washington State Arts Commission, stairwell

Windows, Jacob Lawrence, 1993, lithograph, Washington State Arts Commission, quiet lounge

Library Building

Burnt Sea Blues, LaVerne Krause, 1977, oil on canvas, purchased by the College, main floor reading area

Uprooted, Carola Penn, 2005, acrylic on wood, purchased by the college, main floor reading room

Untitled, LeRoy Setzoil, 1977, teak panels, purchased by the College, beyond checkout counter

Coming to the Rose Fine Arts Center Fall 2007:

Untitled, Lucinda Parker, 2007, oil on canvas, Washington State Arts Commission

12 Columbia Theatre for the Performing

1231 Vandercook Way 442-5400

Helping Hands, Jim Demetro, 2000, cast bronze, donated by the Southwest Washington Community Foundation

13 Bank of America

1515 Commerce Ave. 425-0925

Cowlitz Valley Historical Relief, artist unknown, circa 1980, plaster cast, purchased by the bank

14 Downtown Longview

Broadway and Commerce 442-5400

Thank you Mr. Long, Jim Demetro, 2006, cast bronze, donated by the Longview Public Service Group

Totem Pole, Chief LeLooska (Don Smith), 1961 (refurbished and rededicated in 2006), carved wood, donated by the Camp Fire Council

7he arts are integral to Longview's quality of life, economic vitality, and central identity. By having beautiful works of art in our community, we ensure a commitment to building a more pleasing physical environment. The Visual Arts Commission and the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board encourage the display of public art in city parks and buldings, and in other public places.

1230 7th Avenue...... 636-2400

Exterior Garden Court

Horse in Dry River Bed, John Richen, 1989, bronze sculpture, purchased by Kaiser Permanente

Birds in Dry River Bed, John Richen, 1989, bronze sculpture, purchased by Kaiser Permanente

Lobby

Untitled Stained Glass Hanging, Terry Parker, 1995, stained glass, purchased by Kaiser Permanente

Numerous Photographic Landscape Scenes, Gerry Lamarre, purchased by Kaiser Permanente

Kelso

16 Both ends of the Allen Street Bridge

Across the Cowlitz River 423-1371

Bert and Ernie, Rip Caswell, 2000, cast bronze, donated by the Southwest Washington Community Foundation

Sun River Sentinal, Rip Caswell, 2000, cast bronze, donated by the Southwest Washington Community Foundation

Rainbow Splendor, Rip Caswell, 2000, cast bronze, donated by the Southwest Washington Community Foundation

17 Cowlitz County Historical Museum

405 Allen Street577-3119

Peter Crawford, Bill McCown, 2005, cast bronze, donated by a committee of private citizens

18 Kelso City Hall

203 S. Pacific Avenue 423-1371

The Volcanoes of Lewis and Clark, Bill McCown, 2004, cast bronze, purchased by the city

Untitled Stained Glass, circa 1890-1895, from an old bank building in downtown Tacoma, donated by Ruthie LaRiviere in 2004

19 Kelso Train Station

501 S. First Avenue 423-1371

Waiting for the Train, Carolyn Williams, 2004, cast bronze, donated by Cowlitz Bank

20 Various Building Murals *

Kelso building exteriors, various locations...... 423-1371

Be sure to take a drive around the Kelso commerce area and view the many colorful murals by various artists on the outside of local businesses.

